

Key Question: How has Purley Oaks changed over time?

Historical Vocabulary

decade

A period of 10 years.

century

A period of 100 years.

blackboard

A hard smooth dark surface used for writing or drawing on with chalk.

slate

A material used for writing on.

dip pens

Pens older children used for writing with.

inkwell

A place in a child's desk that would hold ink for their pen.

cane

A wooden stick used for hitting children when they broke the rules.

Dunce's hat

Misbehaving children would have to sit in the corner and wear this hat.

In this topic, we are learning to:

- use words and phrases like: old, new and a long time ago;
- know that some objects belonged to the past;
- recognise that we celebrate certain events, because of what happened many years ago;
- spot old and new things in a picture;
- answer questions using artefact/ photograph provided.

Key Facts

Purley Oaks Primary school used to be called Brighton Road Senior Boys School.

It was built in 1873.

The name changed to Purley Oaks Primary School in 1922.

Purley Oaks Primary School is 150 years old.

6 questions you will know the answers to...
What were the classrooms like?
What were the rules?
What were the playground games?

When was Purley Oaks built?
What are the similarities and difference of the past and present?
What did the building look like?

Assessment Focus:

Enquiry/Skills

Spot old and new things in a picture.
Answer questions using artefact/ photograph provided.
Give a plausible explanation about what an object was used for in the past.
Ask and answer questions about old and new objects.

Knowledge

Identify objects from the past.
Know and understand that some famous people have helped our lives be better today.
Begin to identify the main differences between old and new objects.

Chronology and Understanding

Use words and phrases like: old, new and a long time ago.
Know that some objects belonged to the past.
Put up to three objects in chronological order (recent history.)
Discuss things that happened when we were little.